9. Information Technology: Applications Software 1

Unit Title: Information Technology: Applications Software 1

Unit Code: D75X 34

Unit Purpose: This Unit is designed to enable students to use Information Technology (IT) systems and applications independently to support a range of information processing activities. The Unit is designed to develop a broad knowledge of the theoretical concepts, principles, boundaries and scope of IT applications. These activities will be centred on using software applications packages to meet complex information requirements while paying attention to security and the needs of other users.

On completion of the Unit the candidate should be able to:

- Operate a range of IT equipment independently, giving attention to security and to other users

- Use a range of software application packages to meet complex information requirements

Credit Value: 1 HN Credit at SCQF level 7: (8 SCQF credit points at SCQF level 7)

Recommended prior knowledge and skills: Access to this Unit will be at the discretion of the Centre, however it is recommended that candidates should have sound keyboard and mouse skills and a thorough familiarity with computers and software packages. These skills may be evidenced by the achievement of appropriate National Units or Courses but they may also have been acquired in an informal or work environment. For core skills it would be beneficial if candidates had some IT skills. This could be demonstrated by the achievement of the core skill Using Information Technology at Intermediate 2 level or equivalent.

Core skills: This Unit gives automatic certification of the core skill: Using Information Technology at Higher level.

Assessment: This Unit is largely of a practical nature; it lends itself to a single assessment containing a number of tasks in the form of a project or case study. An observation checklist is required for Outcome 1. Candidates will be required to submit evidence in the form of printed documents for both Outcomes 1 and 2. Files should be provided for candidates as appropriate to negate the need for them to enter large amounts of text or data. Candidates are to have access to on-line help, tutorial support and/or supplier's manuals as required.

Since the core skill of Using Information Technology at Higher level is embedded in this Unit, it is strongly recommended that you follow the assessment guidelines given. If you wish to use a different assessment model you should seek prior moderation of the assessment instrument(s) you intend to use, to ensure that the core skill is still covered. Please note, candidates must achieve all of the minimum evidence specified for each Outcome, combination of Outcomes or for the Unit as a whole in order to pass the Unit and achieve the core skill.

(1) Outcome 1: Operate a range of IT equipment independently, giving attention to security and to other users

- The different components of a computer system and how to use them, (ie mouse or other pointing device, keyboard, monitor, disk drive, processor, printer, scanner, etc)

- The ways in which data can be kept secure, (eg encryption, passwords, back ups, virus protection) and how security procedures can be used to meet the needs of all users of a computer system
- The causes of some common software and hardware problems, (eg cable connections, device settings, software option settings) and what action to take to resolve these

(2) Outcome 2: Use a range of software application packages to meet complex information requirements

- Methods for assessing information requirements and designing solutions using IT
- How to use straightforward and complex features of a range of software application packages (these can be word processing, spreadsheet, database, simulation, graphics, communications, (ie Internet, intranet, email, etc), audio/music, animation, video, multimedia, desktop publishing, data logging and retrieval, control or other packages)

- The content and search facilities of a range of computer data sources
- Factors to consider when working out a search strategy when using a computer data source
- How to extract information from a local and a remote computer data source

Evidence requirements for the Unit:

(1) Outcome 1

The candidate will need evidence to demonstrate his/her knowledge and/or skills by showing that, with minimal support from others (but using on-line help or suppliers' manuals), s/he can:

- Use five hardware devices, (e.g. mouse, keyboard, printer, monitor, disk drive, scanner)
- Start up and close down the operating system

- Implement security measures responsibly and with consideration for the needs of other users, (eg passwords, backups, virus protection)
- Resolve one hardware and one software problem, (e.g. printer off-line, sound not working, too many open programs, system freeze, software option settings, etc).

The evidence for this Outcome should be by submission of an observation checklist covering all the points above. The candidate must also produce printouts to show changes made to his/her filing system and to identify backup files.

(2) Outcome 2

The candidate will need evidence to demonstrate his/her knowledge and/or skills by showing that, with minimal support from others (but using on-line help or suppliers' manuals), s/he can:

- Identify the information requirements of users and how these requirements can be met
- Select software applications packages which are appropriate to meet the identified information requirements
- Use four or more software applications packages to process the identified information requirements and which output two or more different data types, (e.g. text, number, graphics, audio, video) in the form of documents, designs, compositions, models or presentations
- Carry out three searches to extract and present relevant information from suitable local and remote computer data sources. A minimum of two searches must be from remote computer data sources. To do this the candidate will be required to:
- Plan how to find the information and make decisions about searches taking account of efficiency in terms of time, cost, effective filtering and outcome
- Extract information, (e.g. text, number, graphics, audio, video) which matches several search criteria, (e.g. keywords, fields, file names, screen grabber, digital camera or scanner). Searches must be different from each other, e.g. searching two different sources, or searching the same source for two different forms of information
- Integrate two or more different data types, (e.g. text, number, graphics, audio, video) from more than two software applications packages into a single product. The product may be in the form of a document, design, composition, model or presentation
- Format the product so that the final output meets the identified information requirements and is clear and helpful to users
- The evidence for this Outcome should be in the form of a document, design, composition, model or presentation covering all the evidence requirements shown above.

13. IT in Business: Spreadsheets

Unit title: IT in Business: Spreadsheets

Unit code: HH83 34

Unit purpose: This unit is designed to allow learners to develop an understanding of spreadsheet design and how to use spreadsheet features and functions for practical and effective use in a business environment. Learners will develop knowledge and skills to allow them to create customised solutions to common business problems and scenarios. The unit is relevant to learners wishing to develop their competence in the use of spreadsheets in the workplace, or who wish to develop knowledge in skills in the application of spreadsheets more generally.

On completion of the Unit the candidate should be able to:

- Design and create a spreadsheet to meet the needs of a business.
- Apply statistical functions and present information in an appropriate format.
- Present spreadsheet data in graphical format and evaluate information.

Credit value: 1 HN Credit at SCQF level 7: (8 SCQF credit points at SCQF level 7*)

Recommended prior knowledge and skills: Access to this Unit is at the discretion of the centre, however, it would be beneficial if candidates have achieved the Unit IT in Business – Word Processing, Spreadsheets and Databases: An Introduction (DE24 33) or the NQ Unit Information Technology for Administrators (DM3R 11) or equivalent or relevant work experience. It would be beneficial if candidates have some competence in Numeracy at SCQF level 4 and Information and Communication Technology at SCQF level 5. This may be demonstrated by possession of a relevant Unit or relevant work experience.

Core Skills: The achievement of this Unit gives automatic certification of the following:

- Numeracy at SCQF level 5
- Critical Thinking at SCQF level 5

There are also further opportunities to develop the Core Skill of Information and Communication Technology and the Core Skill components Planning and Organising and Reviewing and Evaluating at SCQF level 5.

Assessment:

Assessment of this unit is undertaken in open-book conditions. This is a project based assessment which builds on the content of each outcome. Centres can take an end loaded assessment approach or assess outcome by outcome.

While learners will design their own spreadsheet solution to a scenario for outcomes 1 and 3, statistical data is provided in the file Bootique Hotel Survey.xls for use in tasks for outcome 2.

This assessment is based on a single overall scenario. Part 1 and Part 2 can be assessed at the same time, however it is recommended that Part 1 is completed and passed prior to moving on to Part 2.

Problem solving is a critical aspect of this assessment, therefore learners are required to judge correctly the appropriate tool/feature/function required to complete/ resolve each task/problem and to communicate their findings in a meaningful and accurate way. Critical thinking skills should be used to customise learners own solutions based on their own knowledge and understanding. While the work produced will be broadly similar it is not expected that every learner will produce the same layout. A range of layouts are acceptable; however, it is important that learners are efficient in their design.

Task 10 asks the learners to produce a narrative based on their findings, this should not simply re-state the content of data/results/graphs in narrative form, it should say something meaningful in the context of the scenario (ie what may be the implications of the data for the business organisation in the assessment). The use of screenshots or the screen capture/snipping tool could be used to enhance this narrative.

To ensure authenticity of evidence, centres may wish to print evidence including the learner name in the footer of the worksheets. This is not included as a task for learners in the Assessment Support Pack — the assessment focuses on generating the evidence need to meet the evidence requirements. Centres must manage the authenticity of the assessment in accordance with their systems and procedures relating to plagiarism.

Authenticity of assessments via digital uploads can be secured by a digital certificate of authenticity when submitted through a VLE platform.

15. Behavioural Skills for Business

Unit title: Behavioral Skills for Business

Unit code: F84L 35

Unit purpose: This Unit is designed to enable candidates to explain what managerial behaviour in organisations involves and to analyse the behavioural skills which managers need in order to manage their own behaviour and to deal with others. It enables candidates to recognise the skills which managers need in order to behave effectively in situations which arise within a dynamic business environment.

On completion of this Unit, the candidate will be able to:

- Analyse the main aspects of managerial behaviour in organisations.
- Analyse behavioural skills used by managers.
- Analyse techniques used by managers to manage themselves and others.

Credit value: 1 HN Credit at SCQF level 8: (8 SCQF credit points at SCQF level 8*)

Recommended prior knowledge and skills: Access to this Unit is at the discretion of the centre. However, it would be beneficial if candidates had a background knowledge and understanding of communication skills and the organisational environment in which managers work. This may be demonstrated by possession of:

- HN Business Unit in Managing People and Organisations at Level 7
- HN Business Unit in Communication at Level 7.

Core skills: There may be opportunities to gather evidence towards core skills in this Unit, although there is no automatic certification of core skills or core skills components.

Assessment: The Unit can be assessed by a single integrative assessment covering all three Outcomes. It can take the form of a report based on analysis of a case study of a situation which managers in business are likely to encounter. The case study may be presented in a video or other non-written format.

An exemplar assessment pack and marking guidelines have been produced to indicate the national standard of achievement required at SCQF level 8.

(1) Outcome 1: Analyse the main aspects of managerial behaviour in organisations.

- Roles of the Manager – Mintzberg; Stewart; Fayol
- Differences between managers and leaders
- Approaches to leadership – traits; style; contingency; transformational; action-centred

(2) Outcome 2: Analyse behavioural skills used by managers.

- Assertiveness skills
- Influencing skills
- Negotiation skills
- Conducting meetings and briefings
- Conflict – causes; effects of conflict; dealing with conflict

(3) Outcome 3: Analyse techniques used by managers to manage themselves and others.

- Problem solving and decision-making
- Time management - techniques to manage time
- Dealing with stress – yourself and others

A single integrative assessment covering all three Outcomes can be used and candidates could present their evidence in a report format.

The case study may take the form of a written account of a business situation. However, other format may be used. For example, the case study could be a video scenario which shows aspects of managerial behaviour. In the event of a video scenario being used for assessment purposes, centres should arrange for candidates to gain access to the video within normal college hours.

Evidence requirements

Written and/or oral evidence, consisting of 1500- 2000 words, that the candidate can use the underpinning knowledge and/or skills listed in outcomes 1-3 to analyse the managerial behaviour and the behavioural skills used by managers.

The evidence should sample the knowledge and/or skills items. However, it must cover all three outcomes and at least five of the knowledge and/or skills items, four of which should be drawn from outcomes 2 and 3. A different sample should be used on each assessment occasion.

The evidence presented must demonstrate that, in her/his analysis, the candidate can:

- give valid reasons to support points made
- make accurate references to relevant theoretical work

- assess the impact, on a manager and others, of using a specific behavioural skill in a particular situation
- suggest behaviour that would be effective in a particular situation and provide a valid argument to support the suggestion
- evaluate the advantages and disadvantages of managerial behaviour in a particular situation

In order to enable them to provide evidence, candidates should be given information on a business situation which illustrates actual and potential aspects of managerial behaviour. They should also be given questions on this scenario and asked to respond to them.

Each candidate should generate the evidence by her or himself but may do in unsupervised conditions at a time which s/he determines.

Candidates who do not provide satisfactory evidence at the first attempt may undertake re-assessment. Where only minor amendments are required, re-assessment should be based on the original questions for which the candidate has not provided satisfactory evidence. Candidates whose evidence requires more than minor amendments may make use of the same case study but should be given alternative questions based on a different sample of the knowledge and/or skills items.

21. Preparing Financial Forecasts

Unit Title: Preparing Financial Forecasts

Unit code: F84R 35

Unit purpose: This Unit is designed to provide candidates with an understanding of the use of Management Accounting Information within a business organisation. This is achieved in the first instance, by providing candidates with the skills required to prepare basic management accounting reports. In addition, the Unit will also enable candidates to learn the financial techniques used for making decisions in relation to costing and budgeting, pricing and investments.

On completion of the Unit candidates should be able to:

1. Prepare an operating statement.
2. Analyse costing data and provide information for decision-making.
3. Analyse budgetary information and prepare a variance report.
4. Assess the viability of a project using investment and project appraisal techniques.

Credit value: 1 HN Credit at SCQF level 8: (8 SCQF credit points at SCQF level 8*)

Recommended prior knowledge and skills: Access to this Unit is at the discretion of the centre, but it would be beneficial if the candidate had a basic understanding of Business Accounting. This may be demonstrated by possession of the following:

- HN Unit Business Accounting or an equivalent qualification or experience.

Core skills: The Unit is primarily intended to provide candidates with an understanding of the use of Management Accounting information within a business environment. In particular, the focus of the Unit will be on the provision of accounting information that will assist managers in their decision-making process.

In Outcome 1, candidates will be provided with skills and develop their abilities in the preparation of an operating statement. Candidates should show an understanding of cost classification (direct/indirect), overhead allocation and absorption and profit determination (using both mark-up and margin).

In Outcome 2 the focus is on the development of an understanding of marginal costing and its application in relation to the provision of relevant data to inform decision-making. A comparison of alternative costing methodologies (Full/ Absorption v Marginal) should be made. Candidates should be encouraged to calculate the effect of changing costs and revenue levels (associated with alternative courses of action) on total contribution. Although there is no requirement to assess the calculation of break-even point and the number of units required to achieve a desired level of profit, this should still be covered in the teaching of marginal costing.

In Outcome 3, although there is no requirement to assess the actual preparation of functional budgets, this should still be covered in the teaching of the Unit. An understanding of the construction of such budgets will assist candidates in the development of skills and abilities in the comparison of budgeted activity with actual activity and the analysis of the resultant variances. The candidate should show an understanding of flexed budgets, all the variances stated in the evidence requirements and the possible causes of the variances. The candidate should also be able to analyse the variances from a particular case study and make appropriate recommendations for future action. Candidates should be encouraged to use a suitable spreadsheet package to calculate variances

In Outcome 4 candidates will develop skills and abilities in the application of investment appraisal techniques (both traditional and discounted cash flow) as an aid to decision-making. Included in the study of this outcome should be an examination of the effects of limited funds on selecting projects as well as the normal appraisal techniques covered in the Evidence Requirements. Candidates should be encouraged to use a suitable spreadsheet package to calculate NPV and/or IRR. The effects of taxation should be excluded from the analysis.

Assessment:

The Unit could be assessed by two Instruments of Assessment. One covering Outcomes 1 and 2, and the other covering Outcomes 3 and 4. The first assessment, which is primarily computational in nature, should be carried out under closed-book controlled conditions and should last approximately two hours. The second assessment would require candidates to produce a report with appropriate appendices based on a given case study. This should take the form of a home-based exercise and the evidence could be submitted in the form of a report which incorporates both word-processing and spreadsheet application packages.

(1) Outcome 1: Prepare an operating statement.

- Cost classification.
- Overhead absorption.
- Profit determination.

(2) Outcome 2: Analyse costing data and provide information for decision-making.

- Marginal costing and contribution-margin analysis
- Analysis of costs
- Information for decision making

(3) Outcome 3: Analyse budgetary information and prepare a variance report.

- Flexed budgets.
- Variance identification: Materials, Labour and Overheads.
- Variance analysis and reporting.

(4) Outcome 4: Assess the viability of a project using investment and project appraisal techniques.

- Payback Period.
- Accounting rate of return.

- Discounted cash flow (net present value and internal rate of return).

Evidence requirements for the Unit:

(1) Outcome 1

Evidence must be produced for all parts of the knowledge/skills section. The candidate will be required to produce an operating statement for a business. Each time the Outcome is assessed the candidate will be expected to:

- Prepare an operating statement that includes details of the classification and analysis of costs.
- Apply logic to the order of costs in the operating statement
- Subtotal the main cost categories
- Absorb overheads using an appropriate basis—a minimum of two different bases should be used
- Accurately calculate profit in accordance with the given policy (mark-up or margin).

Evidence must be generated through an assessment undertaken in closed-book controlled conditions.

(2) Outcome 2

Evidence must be produced for all parts of the knowledge/skills section. Candidates will need evidence to show that they can, with reference to a particular business, provide an analysis of costing data, which can be used by the managers of an organisation who must make decisions from the resulting information. Each time this Outcome is assessed candidates will be required to:

- Accurately calculate the effect of changing costs and/or revenue levels on contribution and profit—a minimum of two changes in both cost and revenue levels to be applied
- Analyse a number of alternative courses of action and estimate the costs incurred and profit earned, this must be in accordance with the given projected revenue and cost patterns.
- Recommend an appropriate course of action consistent with analysis.

Evidence must be generated through an assessment undertaken in closed-book controlled conditions. Candidates will be presented with a given profit statement, they will analyse a number of alternative courses of action and produce accurate profit statements (which clearly show the total contribution) for each option. Candidates should then recommend the adoption of a particular option giving a rational justification of their choice.

(3) Outcome 3

Evidence must be produced for all parts of the knowledge/skills section. The candidate will be provided with a series of functional budgets covering: Sales, production, labour, materials and overheads. In addition, candidates will also be given the actual results for the period concerned. Each time the Outcome is assessed candidates will be required to:

- Flex the budget from provided functional budgets in line with actual activity
- Calculate the following variance: Materials (usage, price, cost); Labour (efficiency, rate, cost); Total overhead; and identify a minimum of one possible cause of each variance
- Make a minimum of two recommendations to management that are consistent with the significance and direction of the variances calculated

(4) Outcome 4

Evidence must be produced for all parts of the knowledge/skills section. Candidates will need evidence to demonstrate that they have a basic understanding of investment appraisal techniques and by applying these to a specific project they can recommend an appropriate course of action to management. Each time the outcome is assessed candidates will be required to:

- Select and use two appropriate investment appraisal techniques in terms of the information provided and the requirements of the user
- Produce a discounted cash flow (net present value and internal rate of return) which includes all relevant data allocated to the correct periods
- Assess the viability of the project making reference to a minimum of three conclusions and recommendations—these must be supported with evidence from your analysis of investment appraisal techniques.

Candidates may select a topic for the investigation from those covered in any of the above units.

Candidates may select a topic which is confined to one unit or one which can be related to more than one unit. When choosing a topic, candidates should make sure that it will be a sufficient basis for an investigation which meets all the requirements of this Graded Unit.

Assessment: This Graded Unit will be assessed by a project investigation. The developed investigations should provide the candidate with the opportunity to produce evidence that demonstrates she/he has met the aims of the Graded Unit that it covers.

Since the Core Skill of Problem Solving at SCQF level 6 is embedded in this Unit, it is strongly recommended that you follow the assessment guidelines given. If you wish to use a different assessment model, you should seek prior verification of the assessment instrument(s) you intend to use to ensure that the Core Skill is still covered.

Conditions of Assessment

The candidate should be given a date for completion of the investigation. However, the instructions for the assessment task should be distributed to allow the candidate sufficient time to assimilate the details and carry out the assessment task. During the time between the distribution of the assessment task instructions and the completion date, assessors may answer questions, provide clarification, guidance and reasonable assistance. The assessment task should be marked as soon as possible after the completion date.

The evidence for the project is generated over time and involves three distinct stages, where each stage has to be achieved before the next is undertaken. Thus any re-assessment of stages must be undertaken before proceeding to the next stage.

Where a learner submits a stage of the project for assessment and one or more areas within that stage are assessed as deficient, that stage of the project may be returned for remediation in these areas only. To avoid the practice of grade boosting the parts of the project that gain the minimum marks on the first submission should not be altered or re-marked. Where the first submission of the project meets all of the minimum Evidence Requirements and gains at least the minimum marks resubmission should not be permitted.

If a candidate fails the project overall or wishes to upgrade, then this must be done using a substantially different project, ie all stages are undertaken using a new project, assignment, case study, etc. In this case, a candidate's grade will be based on the achievement in the re-assessment, if this results in a higher grade.

At this SCQF level, candidates should work independently. Discussions should take place between the candidate and tutor to establish the suitability of the candidate's chosen issue from the outset of the investigation. It is the responsibility of the centre to take reasonable steps to ensure that the project is the work of the candidate. For example, centres may wish to informally question candidates at various stages on their knowledge and understanding of the project on which they have embarked. Centres should ensure, where research etc is carried out in other establishments or under the supervision of others, that the candidate does not receive undue assistance.

Evidence requirements for the Unit

The project consists of three stages: planning; developing; and evaluating. The following table specifies the minimum evidence required to pass each stage.

Note: The candidate must achieve all of the minimum evidence specified below for each stage of the project in order to pass the group award Graded Unit.

Project Stage	Minimum Evidence Requirements
Stage 1 — Planning	Developing a brief to investigate a business issue and assess its implications for a business or a number of businesses. The issue must involve meeting the needs of customers. The brief must include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1 Initial personal assessment of the candidate's skills.</li> <li>2 An appropriate title of the project.</li> <li>3 Statement of the issue to be investigated. The plan must include:               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>9 Negotiated dates for the planning, development and evaluation of the project.</li> <li>10 Interim and final timescales and dates for conducting the investigation, which should be related to the objectives of the investigation.</li> <li>11 Identification of the resources (including time) required to carry out</li> </ol> </li> </ol>

The log must include activities undertaken, resources used and time allocated. Evidence of all of the above should be presented. It may be supplemented by evidence provided orally by the candidate in a discussion with the assessor. If oral evidence is provided by the candidate, a record of the main points of the discussion should be recorded. The candidate should retain evidence of their progress and experience to record the progress of the planning stage of the investigation and personal development of the candidate to facilitate and support the evaluation stage by matching those experiences against the plan. The brief is worth 18% of the marks for the investigation while the plan is worth 6% of the marks. The candidate must achieve all of the minimum evidence specified above in order to pass the Planning stage. The candidate must achieve all of the minimum evidence specified above in order to pass the Planning stage.
Stage 2 — Developing	Preparation of a written report of the investigation of a business issue and its implications for a business or businesses. It must include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• detailed explanation of how the issue affects the business or businesses chosen. 	activities undertaken, resources used and time allocated. The report should consist of 2,500–3,500 words or equivalent, if presented verbally, and must be presented in a format suitable for a business report. This must include a contents page, a summary of findings, acknowledgments and references. The Evidence may be supplemented by evidence provided orally by the candidate in a discussion with the assessor. If this is done, a record of the main points of the discussion should be recorded. The candidate should retain evidence of their progress and experience to record the progress of the development stage of the investigation and personal development of the candidate to facilitate and support the evaluation stage by matching those experiences against the plan. The report is worth 52% of the marks for the investigation. The candidate must achieve all of the minimum evidence specified above in order to pass the Development stage. The candidate must achieve all of the minimum evidence specified above in order to pass the Developing stage.
Stage 3 — Evaluating	Providing an evaluation of the effectiveness of all parts of the investigation. The evaluation should include: The evaluation should include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1 A brief outline of the investigation.</li> <li>2 Assessment of the extent to which each of the original objectives of the investigation have been met. This should include reference to any modifications made during the course of the investigation and their importance and to any alternative courses of action considered but rejected. Throughout, the assessment should be supported with credible reasons.</li> <li>3 Commentary on aspects of the planning and developing stages which worked effectively and why and/or aspects of the planning and development stages which did not work as effectively as expected. Three separate aspects should be covered - one for the planning brief, one for the plan and one for the development report.</li> <li>4 Assessment of the reliability and validity of the primary and secondary sources of information.</li> <li>5 Assessment of the strengths and weaknesses of the report of the investigation. This</li> </ol>

should be supported by credible reasons and cover at least one strength and at least one weakness.

6 Recommendations for future investigations. These should be based on items above and must relate to the personal development of the candidate (eg in terms of the further development of skills used in this investigation) and aspects of the process or product of the investigation (eg with respect to setting timescales, gathering information or possible future investigations). It should be clear from the recommendations that the candidate has reflected on what happened and has drawn conclusions from this reflection.

7 assessment of new skills and knowledge gained during the process of the investigation.

The evaluation section of the practical assignment will be assessed by the submission of 1,500 words or equivalent, if presented verbally. Candidates may present this evidence in a manner which they consider appropriate but it must be negotiated and agreed with the tutor. Evidence may be submitted using more than one type of assessment instrument. The Evidence may be supplemented by evidence provided orally by the candidate in a discussion with the assessor. If this is done, a record of the main points of the discussions should be recorded.

The evaluation stage is worth 24% of the marks for the investigation. The candidate must achieve all of the minimum evidence specified above in order to pass the Evaluation stage.

The candidate must achieve all of the minimum evidence specified above in order to pass the Evaluating stage.
